

Allied Food Pantry

Serving the Community Since 1998

WHO WE ARE

The Allied Food Pantry has served the Allied Dunn's Marsh neighborhood for over twenty years. Food insecurity is a pervasive challenge in our community, but it is also an opportunity to come together and support one another. Our overall mission is to build community through food. The Allied Food Pantry wants to achieve a more inclusive approach to food security by providing access to free, healthy, culturally inclusive food using community building and engagement.

WHAT WE DO

Our community-based Allied Food Pantry (AFP) seeks to do more than provide food—it strives to foster a sense of belonging, empower individuals, and build long-lasting connections. By offering local fresh produce, eggs, milk, meat, and non-perishables like dried beans, flour, pasta, and cooking oil to over 450 households monthly, we aim to nourish both bodies and relationships. Beyond addressing immediate food needs, the pantry is a gateway to vital resources, from health services and housing support to employment and educational opportunities. By integrating these resources into our model, we alleviate hunger and equip individuals and families with the tools to improve their overall well-being and stability.

SCHEDULE

The Allied Food Pantry is open every Wednesday morning from 10 am to 12 pm and evening from 6 pm to 7:30 pm.
